TUSKEGEE AIRMEN

MONTCLAIR, NJ
973-571-9610

The Tuskegee Airmen were dedicated, determined young men who enlisted to become America's first black military airmen, at a time when there were many people who thought that black men lacked intelligence, skill, courage and patriotism. They came from every section of the country, with large numbers coming from New York City, Washington, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit. Each one possessed a strong personal desire to serve the United States of America at the best of his ability.

Those who possessed the physical and mental qualifications were accepted as aviation cadets to be trained initially as single-engine pilots and later to be either twin-engine pilots, navigators or bombardiers. Most were college graduates or undergraduates. Others demonstrated their academic qualifications through comprehensive entrance examinations.

No standards were lowered for the pilots or any of the others who trained in operations, meteorology, intelligence, engineering, medicine or any of the other officer fields. Enlisted members were trained to be aircraft and engine mechanics, armament specialists, radio repairmen, parachute riggers, control tower operators, policemen, administrative clerks and all of the other skills necessary to fully function as an Army Air Corps flying squadron or ground support unit.

The black airmen who became single-engine or multi-engine pilots were trained at Tuskegee Army Air Field (TAAF) in Tuskegee Alabama. The first aviation cadet class began in July 1941 and completed training nine months later in March 1942. Thirteen started in the first class. Five successfully completed the training, one of them being Captain Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., a West Point Academy graduate. The other four were commissioned second lieutenants, and all five received Army Air Corps silver pilot wings.

From 1941 through 1946, nine hundred and ninety-four pilots graduated at TAAF, receiving commissions and pilot wings. Black navigators, bombardiers and gunnery crews were trained at selected military bases elsewhere in the United States. Mechanics were trained at Chanute Air Base in Rantoul, Illinois until facilities were in place in 1942 at TAAF

HELLO SAINTS! GIVING HONOR TO GOD, FOR MY PASTOR, MY TEACHER, MY PROPHET AND MY LEADER FOR GODS GUIDANCE TO BRING GODS PEOPLE THROUGH TO ANOTHER YEAR. ANOTHER YEAR HAS GONE BY, AND THE YEAR WAS A YEAR TO FINISH STRONG AND OR TO COMPLETE OR TO FINISH THE WORK OR SHOULD I SAY YOUR FIRST WORK.

SAINTS GOING INTO 2009 GOD HAS GIVEN US THE GOODS. HE HAS EQUIPPED US TO MOVE FORWARD, TO GO IN BODLY, TO GO IN WITH STRENGTH, TO PROSPER WHEN THE WORLD SAIS OTHERWISE. LET US NOT TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO DO NOTHING WITH IT. LET US NOT REPEAT THE PATTERNS OF THE PAST. LET US BREAK THE CURSES OF OUR PAST, AND LAY HOLD OF OUR DESTINY THAT IS BEFORE US. GOD HAS GIVEN US A WORD FROM EVERY WHICH WAY IMAGINABLE, WONDERS AND MIRACLES ABOVE AND BEYOND BELIEF. IT IS TIME TO THINK BIGGER THAN YOUR OWN INFLUENCE. IT IS TIME TO THINK KINGDOM THOUGHTS AND KINGDOM DREAMS.

SAINTS BE ENCOURAGED AND MOVE FORWARD IN THE WORK THAT YOUR HEAVENLY FATHER HAS PLACED WITHIN YOU.

THE TUSKEGEE AIRMEN

Four hundred and fifty of the pilots who were trained at TAAF served overseas in either the 99th Pursuit Squadron (later the 99th Fighter Squadron) or the 332nd Fighter Group. The 99th Fighter Squadron trained in and flew P-40 War hawk aircraft in combat in North Africa, Sicily and Italy from April 1943 until July 1944 when they were transferred to the 332nd Fighter Group in the 15th Air Force.

The outstanding record of black airmen in World War II was accomplished by men whose names will forever live in hallowed memory. Each one accepted the challenge, proudly displayed his skill and determination while suppressing internal rage from humiliation and indignation caused by frequent experiences of racism and bigotry, at home and overseas. These airmen fought two wars - one against a military force overseas and the other against racism at home and abroad.
